This flight of oratory may or may not have been germane to the subject, but it had a most startling effect.

The dozing man in the presiding officer's chair sprang up with a bound that landed Nm right on top of Chief Clerk Buchanan's desk, much to the surprise of that mild-mannered official and the disconcertment of the minute clerk and

RAILROADS ARE BETTER CRITICISM OF RIVER AND HAR-

Washington, Feb. 2.-Immediately disconcertment of the minute clerk and docket clerk, who were busily correcting the journal of the day before.

"Sixty bid for Carisa. Take 10.000 at 60. Sell you 10.000 at 70. Dare you to sell river and harbor appropriation bill." after the approval of the journal today the house resumed consideration of the Representative Small of North Carolina insisted that if the internal trade of the country is to be preserved, adand present waterways deepened and widened. He addressed the house particularly in favor of a 200-mile canal from Norfolk to Beaufort Inlet.

60. Sell you 10,000 at 70. Dare you to sell me Carisa at 60."

While this was going on the speaker was waving his arms wildly in the air, while he grasped tightly in his left hand a blotter he had "swiped" from Buchanan's desk and was industriously scribbling illegible characters upon it.

The house was in an uproar. Representative McRae stood up to offer prayer. Representative Jackson sprang up and seized the seemingly frantic presiding officer, while Harry Robinson raised a point of order and Rudolph Kuchler offered a resolution of investigation.

Suddenly Speaker Joseph woke up, just Replies to Champ Clark. Suddenly Speaker Joseph woke up, just as N. U. S. Centennial Jenson, all unconscious of what was transpiring at his back, concluded this brilliant peroration: "Gentlemen, I assure you that if you pass this bill, the sunshine of public approval will be reflected upon your silver Representative Hepburn of Iowa addressed the house on the project championed by the Missouri and Illinois members for a deep waterway from Chicago to the gulf. He made reply to these matters?" continued the orator.
"I'll take 1.000 Daly-Judge at $11.37½.
